

BURMA'S STRUGGLE CONTINUES

Monday Dec 17, 7:00 - 9:30 pm

A benefit event to help the monks and nuns of Burma!

Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian-Universalists

1924 Cedar Street (@Bonita), Berkeley, CA 94709

SPEAKER

Masoeyein Sayadaw: The saffron revolution continues.

Masoeyein Sayadaw is the head of the International Burmese Monks Organization founded after recent protests in Burma to help the monks and nuns of Burma as well as to save the Buddhism from the destructive Burma's Junta. He is a well-known Buddhist teacher and author of 50 years in Burma. He was derobed and imprisoned in Burma for three years in 1990 for his monastery participating in the Monk's boycott of the military. He has been actively advocating against the atrocities and destructions of monks, nuns and Buddhist institutions in Burma.

VIDEO

Burma: State of Fear by Frontline/WORLD, 25 MINS, COLOR

(Introduction and Q&A by Series Editor Stephen Talbot.) After more than 40 years in power, Burma's junta has amassed one of the largest armies in Southeast Asia and wage wars against its own people. This video will shed great light on why the recent protests in Burma took place.

Program: Video + Speaker + Q&A/Discussion until 9:30 pm

Donation accepted. All proceeds go to International Burmese Monks Organization, Inc. (Sassana Moli)

Contact: 510 220 1323; 707-360-8452 badasf.org; Organized by Burmese American Democratic Alliance sponsored by International Burmese Monk Organization, Buddhist Peace Fellowship and Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian-Universalists Social Justice Committee