

PEACE WALK FOR BURMA

across the Golden Gate Bridge

Wednesday, April 9

Gather 9:30 at Vista Point (Marin side)

Walk at 10am (rain or shine)

Led by Burmese monks and Buddhist clergy, including Jack Kornfield and other senior teachers.

Why April 9? This day San Francisco hosts the Olympic Torch Relay, which is making its way to Beijing to start the 2008 Summer Games. SF is the only North American city to host the Relay.

Why China & the Olympics? The August 2008 Beijing Olympics are a key opportunity to draw attention to China's role in the suffering of the Burmese people. China is a major trading partner with Burma, in oil, natural gas and arms. Further, China is blocking any significant movement on Burma in the United Nations.

Why Burma? The monks of Burma are engaged in one of the most visible, potent, non-violent revolutions in our time. The people in Burma take great strength from our actions and knowing that the international community supports their struggle for basic human rights and democracy.

Details: This is a permitted walk. Parking is limited in bridge areas and we will have shuttles running from the SF side to Vista Point so that people only have to walk one way. Wear red! The Bridge has strict rules. All signs must be hand held by one person and must be 3 ft. by 2 ft. at most. No sticks, musical instruments, banners, or flags.

Schedule: 8:30: Park at Battery Park gravel parking lot on Lincoln St. This is at last SF exit going north. Shuttles will take people across bridge 8:30 - 9:30. Walk begins at Vista Point on Marin side in front of flagpole.

Sponsored by the Buddhist Peace Fellowship, Burmese American Democratic Alliance, Int'l Burmese Monks Org.Inc (Sasana Moli), US Campaign for Burma, Burmese Youth Assoc. & Global Exchange.
