

Burma Human Rights Day Benefit

Is real change taking place in Burma and what can you do to help?

Dinner, Speakers, Film, Music & Cultural Performances!

Saturday March 10, 6pm-10pm
Oakland Asian Cultural Center
388 9th Street, #290, Oakland, CA

After five decades of oppression and military rule, there have been some signs of change toward reforms. Come share the expert opinions on if real change has begun or if it is just an illusion.

Featured Film and Director:

"IntoThe Current" FILM followed by discussion with the film's director, main character, special guests, and internationally known human rights defenders on current situation in Burma.

Speakers and Panelists:

Bo Kyi Former political prisoner and internationally known human rights defender

Min Zin Leading journalist on Burma and Ph.D. candidate at UC Berkeley

Dr. Sein Win Prime Minister of Government in Exile, NCGUB

Come enjoy the taste of Burmese food and culture while helping the people!

Suggested donation $20 and up, sliding scale

(To benefit political prisoners and BADA)

www.badasf.org; 415 722 2907; 510 485 3751

Organized by Burmese American Democratic Alliance (BADA); co-sponsored by Amnesty International (AI), Oakland Asian Cultural Center (OACC), Buddhist Peace Fellowship (BPF), Burmese American Women's Alliance (BAWA), Clear View Project, Ethical Traveler, Burma Refugee Family Network (BRFN), Community Health for Asian American (CHAA).

